

June 21, 1961

Board met to go over the assessor's books. County assessor was also present. The board found there was so things left out of the personal property taxes for some people. This was changed to the best of the boards ability and knowledge.

S.O Steen clerk